

I am writing to ask you to retain the ban on ownership of multiple forms of media within a city by a single company. Already we have seen significant loss of competition as companies are allowed to own more stations in more cities. Without this ban, people looking for alternative news sources will face a near impossible task within their cities.